

PEACE ACCORDS FELLOWSHIP

Earn a one-year scholarship to study in the USA.

About Us

Located in the Midwestern city of Dayton, Ohio, the University of Dayton is ranked a top-tier university by U.S. News & World Report.

With students hailing from more than 70 countries, there is a wonderful international presence to be found on campus. Here, you'll find a welcoming environment and highly regarded academic programs that help you get the most out of your education.

Peace Accords Fellowship

To commemorate the 20th anniversary of the Dayton Peace Accords, the University of Dayton will award a one-year scholarship (covering the full cost of tuition, room and board) to three students from Bosnia and Herzegovina to study on our campus. The U.S. Embassy to Bosnia and Herzegovina will provide the recipients with one round-trip, economy class international air ticket from Bosnia and Herzegovina to Dayton, Ohio, as well as a settling-in allowance of $500.

Application Procedure

To be considered for the Peace Accords Fellowship, you must be pursuing an undergraduate (bachelor's) degree from a university in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

To apply for the fellowship, complete the following steps before June 1, 2015.

- Complete the application process for admission to the University of Dayton.
- Enter the contest by writing a response to an assigned essay question. Then, post your essay as a note on Facebook. Make sure the privacy setting of the note is set to "Public."

For specific details on how to apply to the University and submit your contest entry, visit go.udayton.edu/peaceaccordsfellowship.

Fellowship Program

As a student at the University of Dayton, you will take a variety of diverse and enriching courses each semester. You will also engage in learning and professional development outside the classroom by participating in various clubs and student experiences, including Model UN, Dayton2DC and the UD International Club.
