BIOGRAPHY

General Information

Prof. Dr. Haris Alić was born on January 14, 1979, in Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina. He resides in Ilijaš, at Donja Luka No. 308. He holds a PhD in the field of Sport and Physical Education and has been employed at the Faculty of Sport and Physical Education, University of Sarajevo, since 2006. He currently serves as a Full Professor in the fields of Organization and Management in Kinesiology and Systematic Kinesiology.

He attended primary school in Ilijaš and completed it in Breza. He also graduated from the General Secondary School ("Mixed Secondary School") in Breza. After completing secondary education, he enrolled at the Faculty of Physical Culture in Sarajevo. During his studies, he was repeatedly recognized as the best student of his generation and the best student of the Faculty of Sport and Physical Education, achieving the highest academic average.

On October 19, 2005, he graduated from the Faculty of Sport and Physical Education, University of Sarajevo, with the highest grade (10/10) in the course Sports Training. His graduation thesis was entitled "Individual Supplementary Training of Football Players", and he obtained the title of Professor of Sport and Physical Education.

During his postgraduate studies, he passed all examinations with an average grade of 10/10. On December 29, 2008, he earned the degree of Master of Science in Sport and Physical Education by defending his master's thesis entitled "Defining Differences in the Levels of Morphological Characteristics, Functional and Motor Abilities of Football Players at Different Levels of Competition."

On April 9, 2012, he obtained his PhD at the Faculty of Sport and Physical Education, University of Sarajevo, by successfully defending his doctoral dissertation entitled "Training Effects on the Functional and Motor Abilities of Football Players During Preparatory and Competitive Periods Under the Influence of a Specific Training Process." He thereby earned the title of Doctor of Science in the Field of Sport and Physical Education.

At the Faculty of Sport and Physical Education, University of Sarajevo, he has served in various academic positions, including volunteer assistant, demonstrator, teaching assistant, senior teaching assistant, assistant professor, associate professor, dean, and currently full professor in the fields of Organization and Management in Kinesiology and Systematic Kinesiology.

He is a member of the Council of the University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Sport and Physical Education, a member of the Department of Organization and Management in Sport, and Head of the Department of Transformational Processes in Sport. He has also served as Head of the Second-Cycle (Master's) Study Program, Director of the Summer School of the Faculty of Sport and Physical Education, and Coordinator of Teaching Activities for the First and Second Study Cycles.

At the beginning of the 2017/2018 academic year, he served as Vice-Dean for Academic Affairs. From December 22, 2017, to May 7, 2018, he served as Acting Dean of the Faculty of Sport and Physical Education. He subsequently served as Dean of the Faculty from May 7, 2018, to May 8, 2022, and was reappointed for a second term, serving from May 8, 2022, until February 27, 2023.

Prof. Dr. Alić has participated in numerous national and international conferences, symposiums, and seminars, where he has represented the University of Sarajevo and Bosnia and Herzegovina through the presentation of scientific and professional papers. He is actively involved in the development of education and sport in Bosnia and Herzegovina and internationally, making a significant professional and scientific contribution to these fields.
